

GLADSTONE GALLERY

A Mind of Winter

January 13, 2023 – March 4, 2023

Opening Reception: January 13, 5pm - 7pm
130 East 64th Street

From January 13 until March 4th, 2023, Gladstone presents a selection of works by gallery artists, including Jim Hodges, Arthur Jafa, Robert Mapplethorpe, Philippe Parreno, Rachel Rose, Salvo, Vivian Suter and Rosemarie Trockel. What coheres to this carefully chosen mix of paintings, sculptures, works on paper, and photographs is a sense of frigidity and the colors and motifs that evoke feelings of winter's desolation. The show includes both figurative and abstract compositions that allude to the amalgamation of sensations inherent to this darkest season come together to form a quiet and layered installation. The presentation concludes with a blizzard-like collaging of blue, purple, black, and gray paintings on unstretched canvas by Vivian Suter, which powerfully demonstrates the vibrancy, energy, and unpredictability of winter.
